I've cut myself™

8 clear bandages. Two sizes

Don't be startled. The bandages inside don't look normal. That's because they are made of a futuristic material. It's the same material they use in hospitals. You can wear them for several days. Enjoy.

Hello. I'm sorry you cut yourself. It could be an isolated incident, or maybe you are a very clumsy person. Don't worry. The clumsy are much more lovable than the graceful. The graceful are always busy ballet dancing, and doing incredible feats on the trapeze. The clumsy are always busy being coddled, rubbed, and cared for.

So if you're not too busy having attractive persons ravish you with affection, take a minute to care for your injury. Wash it, and by one of our pretty bandages on top. In a matter of moments you will be able to return to your clumsy affairs.
